Dear Sir or Madam:

The staff of the Air Resources Board (ARB) invites you to attend a "Study Session on the Relationship between Location of Sensitive Receptors and Air Pollution Sources."

The purpose of the Study Session is to exchange views and ideas on the approaches for using distance criteria in land use siting decisions. Invited participants include local land use planners and local government officials, community and environmental leaders, business representatives, and air pollution control agency representatives. The attachments to this notice include a copy of the preliminary agenda and directions to the site.

The time and place of the Study Session are shown below:

October 4, 2004
9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
University of Southern California
Embassy Room
3415 South Figueroa Street
Los Angeles, California 90089
